

Dear Parents and Carers,

Subject: Demystifying Apprenticeships Online Event Wednesday 10th July 5.30pm – 7.00pm

Supporting your child to navigate the changing world of career opportunities can be daunting. West Yorkshire Careers Hub have an exciting event that will shed light on apprenticeship training routes, including degree apprenticeships, helping you to support your child to decide if the apprenticeship route is right for them, and through the application process.

This online session will take place on Wednesday 10th July 5.30pm – 7.00pm and will provide an opportunity for you to get the latest information about apprenticeships.

You will hear directly from a panel of leading apprenticeship employers from a range of sectors, including Asda, ITV, Jet 2, and Forvis Mazars and Impellan Group. These leading employers will be available to answer your questions and shed light on the exciting apprenticeship careers they offer.

During this interactive online event, you will gain invaluable knowledge, including:

- An in-depth overview of apprenticeships and local labour market information
- Tips and strategies for finding exceptional apprenticeship opportunities
- A Q&A session with the esteemed panel of employers, where you can have your questions answered directly

This event is hosted by the West Yorkshire Combined Authority and is completely free to attend, making it accessible to all parents, guardians, and carers who are dedicated to supporting their children on their career journeys.
